Our Mission

From private residence to community resource, the Hormel Historic Home has served the community of Austin for over 140 years. It stands as a symbol of hard work, dedication and concern for the well being of others. The legacy that the Hormel family left in Austin, and on the world, is preserved and shared here through hospitality, music and community outreach.

••• Music •••

With generous support from MarySue Hormel Harris, we present musical offerings that include summer garden concerts, children's music workshops and the Harris music competition.

"The Hormel Historic Home has become our family's second home. Whether it's music classes, family concerts or kid friendly tours we are able to grow closer through the activities provided here. I love how the programs at the home allow my children to connect with history on a deep and meaningful level."

– SarahLynn Zavoral
Board Member and Volunteer

••• Hospitality •••

Make our home, your home! We welcome visitors for tours, families for special celebrations including weddings, corporate and nonprofit organizations for meetings, and many other groups for unique events. Every visitor captures a look into the past while enjoying the elegant and comfortable features of our Home.

"I've attended many events at the Hormel Historic Home. I've never been disappointed. I love the big new addition. You cannot help feeling a bit elegant when you are there!"

– Deb S.
Visitor

••• Community Outreach •••

We offer Educational Programming for all ages, History Presentations and Autism Programming for youth that includes summer camps, monthly fun nights and autism seminars.

"The HHH has been invaluable to our family, and many families in the our community affected by autism. It has pioneered camps and fun activities for kids all along the spectrum, as well as sponsored respite nights for parents, along with educational autism programming for interested community members."

– Mary Barinka
Autism Advocate and Member
