Ripdoozers

7:00 p.m.

Hometown musicians Pete Jacobsen, Jeff Reinartz and Casey McIntyre share their musical union through smooth harmony reminiscent of the good ol' days. This talented Americana and Rock Band has earned the admiration and affection of critics and fans alike.

Monday, July 13

Jeff Humphress

7 - 9 p.m.

After decades of playing hard rock on stages throughout the midwest, this two-time Emmy Award winner is going back to where it all began. "Just me, my acoustic and some coffee. It's more of a laid back vibe, but definitely still a lot of fun!"

Monday, July 27

Pete's Pool Hall Band

7 p.m.

Long-time friends Wendy Larson, Bill Cagley, and Lee Bjorndal play a mix of bluegrass, old-time country and traditional music. Their mantra is "music of all ages for all ages." Influenced by family traditions and bluegrass favorites these musicians will bring fun toe tapping to the Peace Garden.

Monday, August 10

Lehto & Wright

7 p.m.

Minneapolis based group performing modern interpretations of Traditional Celtic and American Folk Music. The musicians bring a fresh approach to the world of folk and folk rock.

Monday, August 31

Kellogg Duo

7:00 p.m.

Be wow'd by this husband & wife duo. Jeff and Kristi sing the light out of classic renditions of music from years gone by featuring artists such as Neil Diamond and Johnny & June Cash. The couple will blow your mind with their chemistry, personality and musicality.
