

2022 Music at the Mansion Summer Concert Series

2022 Music at the Mansion at the Hormel Historic Home is supported by the generosity of MarySue Hormel Harris. Enjoy free entertainment in our beautiful garden. Bring a chair or blanket. Cash bar is available during the evening events. Gates will open at 6pm for those who would like to come early and support us with purchasing food. We will be offering grilled burgers, brats, hot dogs, etc.

June 6th: Triptych

Triptych is a percussion trio of MacPhail faculty teaching artists Paul Babcock, William Arnold and Cheryl Berglund. The group has entertained audiences in Minnesota with their contemporary percussion music since 2021.

June 13th: An evening with Dennis Warner

Please join us for a special evening celebrating John Denver's music as presented by Dennis Warner & the D's. Warner is not an imitator or impersonator, but an accomplished performer who will share stories and explore John's music in his own wonderful, distinctive style.

June 20th: Pete's Pool hall Band

Long-time friends Wendy Larson, Bill Cagley, and Lee Bjorndal play a mix of bluegrass, old-time country and traditional music. Their mantra is "music of all ages for all ages." Influenced by family traditions and bluegrass favorites these musicians will bring fun toe tapping to the Peace Garden

June 27th: Community Jazz Band

Directed by Jacob Burkhart, this local music favorite has an annual tradition of performing at HHH. Join us to hear a mix of traditional jazz standards and new tunes from the best musicians today. This summer they will be joined by a true rising star in the music industry, award winning trombonist Jackson Churchill.

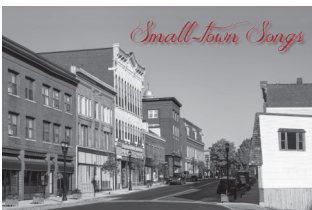

July 11th: Everett Smithson Blues Band

Enjoy a musical journey from Brainerd to New Orleans. Interesting original music and familiar gems. Zydeco, Blues, Rockabilly, Tex Mex and more!

July 18th : Small Town Songs

Small-town songs is a collection of original Americana that portrays life in the Midwest, including songs specifically about Austin, such as "I love this little town," "Skinner's Hill," "(KAUS) Classified," "The Tendermaid blues," and "The Sweet Reads Express." Scott will be joined by fellow musicians: Scott Anderson, Mark Conway, Brad Issendorf, and Eliseo Garcia.

July 25th : Watermelon Slush

A perfect blend of folk, blues and country with lyrics grown straight out of the cornfields of Southern Minnesota. Original, down-home music featuring New Richland natives Pete Klug and Ben Scruggs on vocals and guitar, and Austin native Jason Felten on the upright bass.

August 1st– Tricia and the Toonies/ 2 performances

3:00pm– Critter Picnic: Nominated for the Minnesota Music Award, this uplifting stage show is a unique mixture of great music, colorful puppets, audience participation and LOTS of laughter. Bring your favorite stuffed critter for an afternoon of fun at the HHH.

7:00pm– Happy Days 50's Fun Show: The Happy Days Show brings all ages together in fun, dancing, great music and laughter. From the Shimmy to the Twist, The Swim and the Pony, The Limbo to the Hand Jive...The Jerk and Mony Mony plus so much more.

August 8th- Joey Leone Band

Joey takes us through the early years of rock and roll, focusing on the life, influence, and music of pioneers like Chuck Berry, Buddy Holly, Elvis Presley, Bo Diddley, and Little Richard. Experience the advent and evolution of rock and roll through songs, stories, and historic events as it gained widespread appeal and influenced American music and popular culture for decades to come

August 15th- The Wreck

The wreck brings fun, funky, groove- oriented treatments of an eclectic mix of familiar, yet not worn out, tunes. And, we have a ton of fun! So will you!

August 22nd– Los Rebeldes

Los Rebeldes (The Rebels) is a Mexican-American group based out of southern Minnesota and has been performing since the early 1980s. Their style from the north blends with traditions of the south to bring the musical styles of Tex-Mex, Conjunto, Country, Folk, and Cumbia alive on stage.

August 29th- Patchouli & Terra Guitarra

With 22 albums recorded and appearances on TV, film and radio programs around the world, the duo's sound is a soulful fusion of blazing Spanish and World guitar instrumentals, heartstring tugging lyrics, lush vocal harmonies, and epic folk rock anthems.

JAMMIN AT THE MANSION IS BACK! June 16th, July 21st and August 18th

Join us on Thursday nights from 7-9pm for a fun evening of jamming with local musicians. If jamming isn't your thing you can take in all the fun listening to the musicians as they jam. Cash bar will be available .